

Purchase Terms:

Purchasing into Villas de la Colina is not only simple, but rewarding; we have a solid and reputable background with steadily high satisfaction marks with our present clients. We do business by the book and we are clear and concise to our many interested buyers. The process goes like this: once you have chosen the unit of your dreams a sales contract is drawn, both in English as in Spanish, detailing payment schedules and all the fine details as necessary. From here you will get a monthly report on the advancement of your unit, a representative is always available for any questions, be it technical or just to inquire about photographs or any other items. Finally the when the agreed delivery date is reached, you'll be pleased to see the final product: your brand new home on the Colina... Villas de la Colina II... your dream home made reality !
